

EVERY HOUSE HAS A STORY TO TELL WHAT'S YOURS?

My Old House (www.myoldhouse.co.uk) is a site where you can share memories of the places you have lived before.

You can add photographs and write about the things that matter to you, the good times and the bad, and link them to a house, a street or even an area.

You can even be reunited with old neighbours as your home begins to tell its own story.

Registration is totally free, please come and take a look, and enjoy making history.

- ★ Keep a history of property you have lived in.
- ★ Share memories of your property and the local area
- ★ Discover how much your your area has changed
